Incentivising community engagement and fostering growth within the Radix ecosystem through a gamified token distribution system.

HOW DOES C2E WORK?

Click-2-Earn (C2E) on our platform is a simple system designed to gamify engagement and incentivise participation within the $NOW ecosystem. As a reward for active participation, users earn $NOW tokens for each completed click or task on the platform.

But you must be quick! There is only a limited amount of clicks available each day!

CLICK

Users have the opportunity to earn $NOW tokens by interacting with our platform by a simple CLICK!

CONFIRM

Complete the required action! Task validation is a crucial aspect of our platform, ensuring that clicks and engagements are genuine and completed as intended.

COLLECT

$NOW rewards are distributed weekly based on the number of clicks or actions a user completes. Multipliers allow you to earn more $NOW and XP.

LIQUIDITY PROVISION

Our platform introduces a unique approach to enhancing Click-2-Earn (C2E) rewards through liquidity provision. Users earn multipliers on rewards by providing liquidity.

By aligning rewards with liquidity contribution, users are empowered to maximize their rewards based on their level of participation and investment.

XP & ACHIEVEMENTS

Join the fun on our platform and start earning $NOW tokens in a gamified way! Get rewarded with XP (Experience Points) and achievements for every link you click. Plus, earn extra points based on liquidity provision multipliers.

By adding liquidity to the pool, you can unlock higher multipliers, boosting your earning potential. Keep engaging and watch your rewards grow!

LOYALTY PROGRAM

The platform has launched a unique Loyalty Program aimed at acknowledging the dedication and contributions of liquidity providers in our ecosystem. To reward you for your loyalty, 2.5% of the token supply will be set aside for an Airdrop initiative. This is created to reward the top 50 liquidity providers who consistently contribute liquidity to the pool each month.

NFT PREMIUM ACCESS

Get ready for some exciting perks! Our NFTs offer exclusive benefits and access within our platform. Plus, as a bonus, each NFT gives holders a BOOST on your multiplier for our Click-2-Earn rewards program.

Funds raised through our NFT drop will be allocated to platform development, agency fees and buy back rewards.

$NOW ECOSYSTEM OVERVIEW

The flowchart provides a visual representation of the interconnected components of Project NOW, illustrating how users and projects can engage with different features within our ecosystem.

10% BUYBACK

Our marketing agency champions projects on Radix through a unique blend of services and strategic reinvestment. Here's how we stand out:

- Full-Spectrum Support: Offering marketing, design, and social media services tailored to elevate projects on the Radix chain.
- Reinvesting in Growth: We commit 10% of our agency revenue to buy tokens & NFTs from other promising projects, ensuring we contribute directly to the ecosystem's vibrancy.
- Smart Investments: Our purchases are timed to secure the best prices, maximizing the number of tokens we acquire and enhancing the value of our initiatives.
- Fueling Success: Acquired tokens are not just held; they're actively used in giveaway campaigns to support and promote projects we believe in, driving community engagement and project visibility.

C2E SUPPLY DISTRIBUTION

10% of the supply has been allocated to Click-2-Earn rewards. The amount of tokens distributed over the years is dependant on the amount of users our platform generates.

More users = bigger supply distribution!

100M $NOW

" An organic way to increase the total supply without impacting the price of $NOW "

STAKE $NOW

5% of the token supply is allocated to our staking incentive. Users will have the flexibility to choose lock periods, enabling them to optimize their rewards with high Annual Percentage Yields (APY).

OUR GOAL

To foster a thriving Radix Ecosystem through strategic support, investment, and community engagement, ensuring mutual growth and success.

UPDATED TOKENOMICS

PRIVATE SALE

3.5% of the initial supply allocated to private sale will be available for strategic investment through our OTC Private Token Sale.

The Private Token Sale will be conducted "off the chart" ensuring fair and equitable access to tokens while avoiding market volatility.

Investors will have the opportunity to purchase $NOW tokens at a discounted rate, set at 5% to 10% below the current market price, depending on the quantity acquired.

Funds raised through the Private Token Sale will be allocated towards advancing the development of our platform, agency costs and CEX listings.

STAKING

5% of the token supply is allocated to our staking incentive. Users will have the flexibility to choose lock periods, enabling them to optimize their rewards with higher Annual Percentage Yields (APY).

LAUNCH & DEV

A portion of the token allocation is dedicated to funding ongoing development efforts to enhance the platform features and capabilities over time.

CLICK 2 EARN

10% of the initial supply is allocated to click to earn mechanisms aimed to incentivise users that engage with our platform. More tokens may be allocated to this over time from the development token allocation.

FOUNDERS

There are two founders of the project each receiving 4% of the supply to align their interests with those of the community.

MARKETING

Marketing initiatives aimed at raising awareness, attracting users and driving adoption of the platform, ensuring visibility and engagement within the target market and its potential reach.

TEAM

Tokens are allocated to the core members and contributors who play a crucial role in the projects development, including developers, incentivising their continued involvement and dedication to the projects success.

GIVEAWAYS

Giveaways and promotional activities aimed at rewarding community members, attracting new users, and fostering engagement within the ecosystem.

ADVISORS

Strategic partnerships and advisors who provide valuable expertise, guidance, and support to the project, helping to drive growth, establish credibility and drive user adoption.

AIRDROP

Allocated for our Loyalty Programme to incentivise accumulation of $NOW tokens. Rewarding our Top 50 liquidity providers.

PRIVATE SALE

A reserved allocation of tokens is offered to private investors, providing them with exclusive access to tokens at a discounted price to secure funds that support the development off the platform and CEX listings.

$NOW Launch

The beginning of our journey, providing the foundation for our platform and ecosystem to thrive on Radix.

Website Launch

With the launch of our website, we establish our online presence for users to learn about our project & access resources

Community Building & Giveaways

Initiatives and exciting giveaways to foster engagement, reward supporters, and grow our user base organically.

Marketing

We kickstart our marketing efforts to promote the project, raise awareness, and attract users to our platform

Platform UI Design & Development

Development efforts shift towards designing and building the platform, laying the groundwork for a robust and user-friendly platform for projects on the Radix Network.

ROADMAP V2

NFT Launch

A limited supply of NFTs will be available to purchase through our website. The NFTs gives access to exclusive features on our platform and gives you a BOOST in C2E rewards

Staking Launched

Staking goes live. Users can stake $NOW to earn $NOW. Choose from a range of different lock periods. The longer you stake the higher the APY!

Platform Beta

We roll out the beta version of the platform, inviting users to test out its features, provide feedback, and help us refine the platform before its official launch.
